EXECUTIVE BUSINESS ALLIANCE

CHICAGO (EBAC)

Outreach Program

Executive Business Alliance Chicago (EBAC) was formulated to bring growth and development to the communities they serve. Emphasis is placed on building a strong relationship with individuals, their family, local businesses, members of the community, and the leadership of the communities.

Executive Business Alliance Chicago (EBAC) promotes a business model that offers a grassroots approach to business startup, to include consultation, mentorship and coaching of individuals interested in owning a business.

Executive Business Alliance Chicago (EBAC)'s mission, goals and objectives are obtained by assisting clients with their startup, development, operation, management, and problem solving formats related to business issues, as well as unique social networking opportunities within the community it serves.

Executive Business Alliance Chicago (EBAC) is offering this 6 week series of entrepreneurship classes as a grassroots effort to teach individuals how to start their own venture from a dream, decision, to existence.. EBAC was found by Mr. Albert Burks, Jr., MBA. who has over 40 years of expertise in business development, consultation, mentorship and coaching.

EBAC utilizes a successful framework that teaches comprehensive steps that people can use in understanding, formulating, and beginning a small business; and assistance in the ongoing development of their business.
